

Four directions for the night.

Every mark is built on one idea: a V that tells you where it's happening tonight. Same palette, same Epilogue wordmark, four different emphases.

01 · EVOLUTION

Pouls

Today's heartbeat-V, rebuilt on rounded strokes. A flat line drops into a V and spikes: the city waking up. Keeps existing equity.

02 · SYMBOL

Mains en l'air

One shape, three reads: a V, a map pin pointing at the venue, and a person, arms up on the dance floor. The dot is the venue going live.

03 · SYMBOL

Ondes

Nested Vs as bass waves spreading out from a venue: one place broadcasting, the whole commune hearing it. Loudest on posters, weakest small.

04 · WORDMARK

VYBA

Type-led. The A loses its crossbar and becomes a roof, a stage, a doorway, with you (the dot) inside. Strong name recall, weaker standalone icon.
